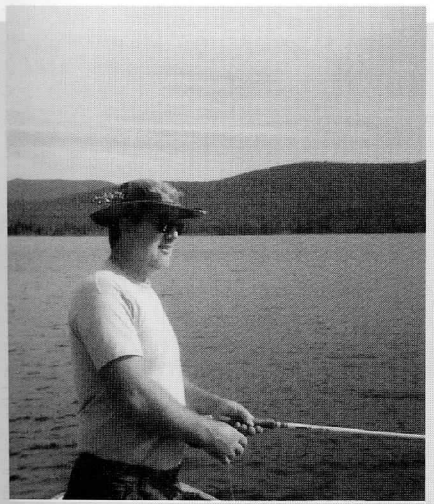
The Class of 2006 is excited to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Marilyn Howe. Mrs. Howe has been working with seniors for the past 33 years as the secretary of the guidance office here at Telstar. She is always willing to help students with college applications and other necessary forms, scheduling a meeting with the guidance counselors, and answering questions with a smile. Over the years she has worked with more than fifteen different guidance counselors and has seen more than 3,000 seniors graduate from Telstar High School. The Class of 2006 appreciates everything she's done for us over our past four years at Telstar.



David C. Tripp --1940-2006

Remembering Tripper

David Tripp taught at Telstar from the day it opened in 1968 until his retirement in 1998. To his students he was a teacher who always went the extra mile to see they understood the lesson. To his friends and colleagues he could always be counted on to be there if he was needed. To all he was a larger than life figure who lived for his family and the many friendships he made in school and out. David formed opinions on many topics and vigorously defended each of them. He will be missed by all of us.

Starting a new school junior year was a little tougher than I thought it would be. A few people made it a lot easier. Marissa, you're a great friend, we've had a lot of good times and I'm sure we'll have many more before the year is up. To my brother sister and dog, I love all very much. Frank, I love you, you've been the best friend I could ever ask for. I'm sure that by the time this yearbook comes out we will have had a wonderful winter together and maybe you will even be home for the summer getting ready to go to prom again! Right now you being away is driving me crazy, by the time this comes out you will be home or at least close to coming home and this crazy year will be behind us. I want to thank you for all of the memories and the promise of many more. I love you.... I see trees of green, red roses too, I see 'em bloom for me and you and I think to myself what a wonderful world...I love you, always and forever.

It wont be long now before I'm out of this place. I have great things to do and big dreams to chase. No matter what I do or where I go, there is one thing that I'm sure I know. You must walk through life with your head held high, knowing that your spirit will never die. With this belief you will always win. Give your life a positive spin. No matter how bad life gets, it's all how you make it, your dream is in front of you just reach out and take it.-First, I'd like to thank Mr. Lunney for being the best coach. I would also like to thank Mrs. Parker for her excellent guidance and support. I'd like to thank my sister Hannah for always being the most supportive and helpful sibling that anyone could ask for. I must also thank my mother for being the totally unique, loving, caring woman she is and has always been. And last but not least, I want to thank my father for teaching me how not to be one of two kinds of people in this world.

Dallas-Allen Cole

I want to say thanks to my Uncle Lester, my supportive Grandparents and my mother and father; because without them I wouldn't be the person I am today.
Thanks for good friends: Jeremy D. Anthony B. Matt H. Justin M Guy W.

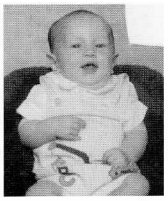
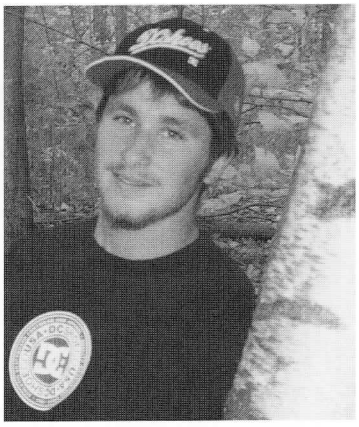
'Super duper gang, well done!'-Ron Burgundy PEACE

Marissa L. Corriveau

I'm not sure whether I'm happy or sad to leave, that's something I probably won't find out until it happens. I need to thank my family and my teachers, I never would have been able to make it without you. Up until last year I never really felt like I had a real friend; that all changed with Megan. I'd have to say that our most memorable moment was our boat race. Our military genius and our first boat were unforgettable. Band was definitely the best thing that happened to me. I never would have known how much I love making music had Mrs. Parker not insisted I needed another fine art. Imagine what would have happened had I chosen woodworking! I really missed field hockey this year, but I certainly didn't miss the stress and disappointments I experienced last year. Always remember that trials and tribulations aren't the end of the world (I'm still here), they only make your life better in the long run.





Brandon S. Costello

Well guys, we've finally reached the end of high school. Wow that went fast.However, the optimist in me sees this as more of a beginning than an ending. But now is a time for talking about the past, not the future. To all my friends, we've had some great times and have enough stories and one liner's to fill 10 yearbooks. I'm who I am today because of all of you. Thanks for all the help along the way, I always appreciate it. Mr. Morton, of course I have to put you in here. It's been a good ride. I hope I always kept you on your toes. And finally, my family. Mom and Dad, thanks for always being there for me and always supporting me. It's a good feeling knowing that no matter what, there is always someone there to talk to.and give me money. Ben, my bro, my bud. It's been awesome growing up with you. Have fun in high school and remember I'm always here for you. I love you guys. Class of '06, congratulations and good luck!

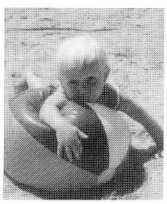
Dad, you've taught me everything I need to know about being a boy, thank you. Bailey, I've got to admit, I never could throw a sock as hard as you. Emma, you remind me so much of myself, and honestly, your eyes aren't really as big as I say they are. You all have my love. My friends, thanks for not completely hating me, I needed you. To the Class of 2006, be on the lookout because, "I'll probably conquer the world. I'm just not sure what I'll do it with; it's such a major undertaking. Right now I'm trying to decide between carrot cake and peanut butter and fluff sandwiches. Maybe gummy bears…"



Sarah E. Daye

You were friendly, kind and caring. Sensitive, loyal and understanding. Special, accepting, exciting and wise
Truthful and helpful, with whatever was going in my chaotic life. Confiding, and forgiving. You were my "mom" for this last year of high schoolAnd as much as I know you hated it... I thank you from the bottom of my heart I wanted to make you proud...and hopefully I accomplished that
We had fun times and bad times... I want to thank you so much for everything you did for me to make me a better person You'll always be there for me, And I'll always be here for you too. I love you sistah!

Senior year is finally here. There have been so many great memories- Blue light headaches, 'I need to change my oil' 'you're the biggest hippie I know' 'check it out' summer 05 with Jessi, camping in Fort Kent, going to Canada with Jessi, Aj, and Christina, and after 6 hours of driving we now know there are 9 lights and 20 rivets on the back of Randy's trailer. Rite aid massage chairs, jiffy smores, camping with Fran and Glenny boy ((who learned the hard way not to kiss turtles)) climbing through windows with air conditioners in them, endless poker games, the list goes on and on. Thanks for everything-Jessi, Nick, Mom, Dad, Randy, Momma Gilbert, Lori, Grampa, Fran, Glen, and especially you, Matthew James Sweetser. I love you all. After graduating eighth grade, knowing another four years in Telstar still lay ahead of me was unfathomable. However having finally reached my senior year, looking towards my future now, with no set route I wish that I could have the security of simply continuing on with my education at Telstar with all of my friends from the class of 06. Throughout my four years at Telstar I have made many friends, and I want to wish all of you the best of luck in your futures. I want to thank Gary Wight for being the greatest coach and helping me in every sport I did. I also want to thank Doug Bennett and Ms. Poston for always putting up with me and never giving me detention. Lastly I would like to thank my family, which gave me the support I needed to make my years in high school a success.

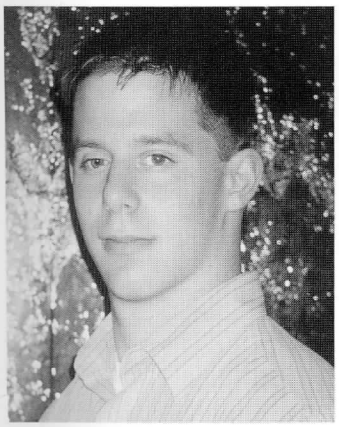
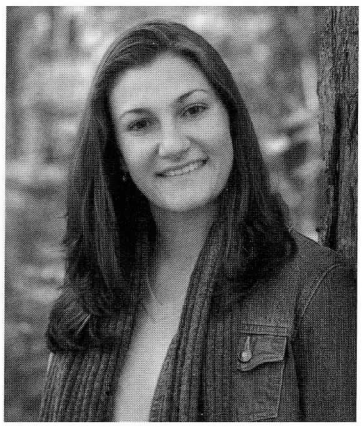
Kelsey J. Dole

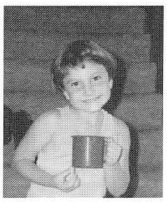
People say that high school is the best time of your life. I say that the past 17 years have been unforgettable. During these years I've built some amazing friendships, created everlasting memories, and learned a few lessons that I will carry with me forever. I can say with a smile on my face that all the fun and love that I've had is because of a truly wonderful group of people around me. Field Hockey state champs. POVERTY. Danna and Lindsay I love you both, couldn't imagine my life with out you. To everyone else I couldn't have asked for a better group of friends. Mom you're my inspiration. To the rest of my family I love you. Lastly, to the class of 06, may your futures bring you endless happiness, but never forget the years that we've had together, I know I never will. "Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it"- Ferris Bueller. Good luck and good wishes. Yonder.



Justin R. Donnaruma

You learn a lot of things while in high school. Everything from how to deal with the massive amounts of work you get, or how to avoid it, to how to deal with girls. Everything you go through sets up how you will end up in college. High school is a vital part of life. My only wish is that I took it more seriously.





Margaret A. Duplessis

"What we do in life echoes in eternity" Gladiator. We all grow up striving for that crisp echo on the rocks. Thank you to my entire family for laying the road down on my own path to success. Mom & Dad, you taught me how to be a person. I owe much of who I am to you and your guidance. I Love You both. My Grandparents, you raised me up in so many ways. Thank you for all the Jumbles & the signature Woofa-Boofus echo. I Love You both! Kelsea, Thanks for all the laughs sis. Love you. My life's echo changed its pitch thanks to Mr. Rose allowing me to be Cabin Boy in the Lady Pirates production. This was my major stretch to perfecting it even more. Amanda, my Shawna, that rickety ole' ship is just what I needed. You showed me happiness that I never thought was possible. Star Wars, Funtown, and the future. Baby I'm amazed by you. I Love You forever and always! Thank you for finding me, to make our own distinct echo, perfect.

I keep my paintbrush with me Wherever I may go, In case I need to cover up So the real me doesn't show. I'm afraid to show you me, Afraid of what you'll do - that You might laugh or say mean things. I'm afraid I might lose you. I'd like to remove all my paint coats To show you the real, true me, But I want you to try and understand, I need you to accept what you see. So if you'll be patient and close your eyes, I'll strip off all my coats real slow. Please understand how much it hurts To let the real me show. Now my coats are all stripped off. I feel naked, bare and cold, And if you still love me with all that you see, You are my friend, pure as gold. I need to save my paintbrush, though, And hold it in my hand, I want to keep it handy In case somebody doesn't understand. So please protect me, my dear friend And thanks for loving me true, But please let me keep my paintbrush with me Until I love me, too. By: Bettie Youngs

I loved it here at Telstar, but now its time for me to leave. The thing I'll miss most about it is the track team, which was always fun to be around, especially when there was a track meet. The teachers I'll miss most are Mr. Keane, Mr. Leclerc, Mr. O'Conner and Mr. Bennett for helping me out through all my difficult times with my family. The most exciting thing I've done since I've been at Telstar was go white water rafting in the Telstar challenge class. I'll never forget when I flipped the canoe in Errol New Hampshire. Well I'm not a very good at writing so have fun my friends and see you later class of 06.

Wellp, I'm finally writing my senior write-up after 4 years! The years didn't seem to fly by fast, but I'm thankful I have met so many people and made friends with the best people I could ever ask for as friends. First off, I'd like to thank my parents for always being there for me and raising me up the best they could. I'd also like to thank my big sister for being an awesome sibling in my life. I would if I could fit the rest of the family in here but I don't have the room so I'd like to thank everyone else in the family (you know who you are). And now to mention the people and friends I've known the best: andrew, anthony, candy, kenny, jason, mike, rochelle, sam, and zach. If I forgot names, you know who you are too I guess. To end this on a good note, I hope that the groups of people I know have a great life after school and they live it to the fullest, and that I'm gonna miss all of you.

I hope these are going to be the best 5 months of my life! I'll wish I could graduate & be here with you for the whole year. This isn't possible, so I'll enjoy the time I'm here the most I can. The friends I made school, soccer, cold weather, skiing, snowboarding, wakeboarding, parties & all the good moments I've had. I have had some memorable times at Telstar High. Some good some not so good but they all give me something to look back at. "Life is one big question when you're staring at the clock". Sublime. I want to thank those of you who encouraged me to move forward when times were rough. It's nice to be moving on but I'm going to miss some of you but the majority I'm not so sad to say goodbye to. My advice is to make the best of the hand life deals you. There are a couple people I want to say goodbye to: Kayla F stay strong; don't listen to what they have to say, Guy W thanks bro, Merchant stay out of trouble, Kennison good times with more to come, and to my self cause I made it. Dear Sarah,
It seems so unimaginable that graduation day is here. It doesn't seem that long ago that you were so little, and we held you so near. It truly feels like only yesterday your first steps, first tooth, your first smile, and your many joyous songs.
Sarah we are so very proud of you and of your many accomplishments. Your commitment is a great asset.. "You've become a math wiz." keep going strong! You're such a great human being with a great deal of individuality, continue to celebrate it! "We delight in the beauty of the butterfly, but rarely admit the changes it has gone through to achieve its beauty" May Angelou.
Sarah always believe in your heart to guide you, you know what feels right. Believe in goodness, hope, love and always believe in yourself. Believe in your dreams, and of the many possibilities of tomorrow. Believe in that voice within you, the future is yours to create, celebrate it with passion!
"Love is that condition in the human spirit so profound that it allows you to survive, and even better than that, to thrive with passion, compassion and immense style," Maya Angelou.

Congrats Sarah!
Love, Dad, Mom, Bion and Mike

Kelsey,
We love you! You have made us very proud.
Mom, Dad and Skye

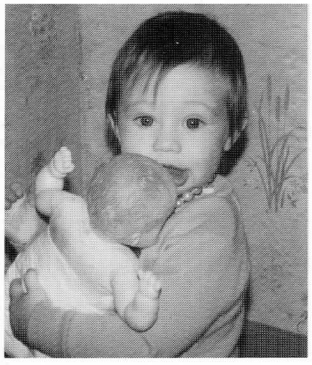
Remember Kyle,
The secret of life is to make the best of whatever comes along. Make every day fresh and new. Go in search of knowledge and experiences. Let your questions and your answers reconcile. Do your best to remember in the story of your life to write the best book you can. Have pages on understanding and tales of overcoming hardships. Fill your story with laughter, adventure and make each chapter reflect time well spent. Meet your obligations. If you live up to your potential, you'll never have to live down any disappointment. Just listen to your heart, and admire your accomplishments! I'm so proud of you Kyle!!!
Love, Gram Roberts



Dear Kayla,

Have fun and be good.
Love mom and dad

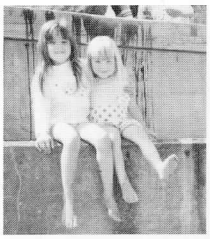
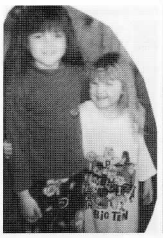
Kay,
For fifteen years you've let me watch your every move, allowed me to borrow your clothes, and unintentionally learn from your mistakes. All three of those things imply a "thank you." You're a wonderful young lady with strong beliefs. Whatever you choose to do with the time that has been given to you, know that I'll always be proud to say you're my big sister. Love you and good luck with everything you do. WhitWhit

Shaun,
The time has gone by so fast! Since the day your entered kindergarten with you many curious questions and your need to now everything! Like when you were four and needed to know "How many eyes does a starfish have?" One on each leg! Your ability to do wordseach puzzles before you could read. The questions and determination you have, shaped you into the wonderful young man you are!! You will go far in life! We are proud to have you for our son.
Love, Mom & Dad





"I can't remember all the times I tried to tell myself to hold on to these moments as they pass." - Counting Crows

Sis,
Where do I start. You're simply an amazing girl. You're more than just a cousin, but a sister and my best friend. I hope you know I support you in all you do. You'll always be my shining star. Never forget all the times we've had and the memories we've shared. We've been through it all, good and bad, and if you ever need me you know I'm here. Treasure these years and believe me when I say, "they'll be the best years of your life." And, remember when life gets you down, just close your eyes and off we'll go to Neverland, cause in our hearts we'll always be Peter Pan and Tinkerbell. I love you kid. Dorcey

Tiffany -I feel like the luckiest person in the world to have you for a daughter! The time has gone by way too fast, from our days of playing Candyland before getting on the bus for your afternoon of kindergarten, to seeing you now as a beautiful young lady!
You have been such a wonderful daughter and together we have accomplished so much, climbed so many mountains together, but have always somehow managed to come out on top. I know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do or wherever life chooses to take you, for you have a heart of Gold and are a true inspiration to those who know you. Dance will never be the same without you. I hope somehow, you will make it a part of your life. You and I will always have a special bond together and remember, Dad and I will always be here for you when ever you need us no matter what. May good luck always be with you! I love you so much, XO, Mom

First words, first steps, first hit, first catch, first plie', first day of school, first A+, first pair of tap shoes, first car, first job and first in our hearts… Every accomplishment is marked with pride from us and within yourself. Continue to fill your life with firsts. We'll always be proud in whatever you do. We love you!! - Dad

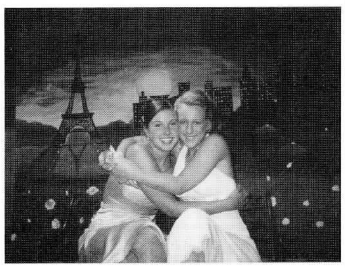
Ren,
You sure have given me a run for my money! Now I'm asking you for fashion advice! The student has finally surpassed the teacher. Thanks for being the best little sister a girl could ask for, but don't get too big for your britches. You may be graduating, but remember, I'm still always right! Love ya. Love, Stimpy

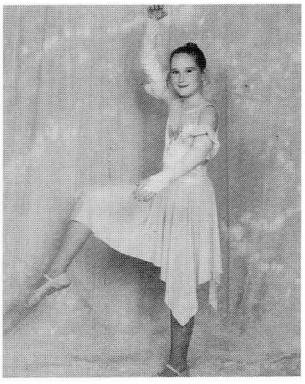
Tiff/Auntie,
Here is to remembering the past, but wishing you the best for tomorrow. Never forget that if you need me I will always let you hold the remote. Congratulations! We love you!
Love, Heather, Scott & Gabrielle

Auntie,
I love you!!!!! XOXOXOX, Gabrielle

Danna, What a wonderful journey these last 18 years have been. It has been incredible watching you grow into the beautiful, mature young lady you have become. We will miss all the great times watching you dance, perform theater, ski and that awesome field hockey. Keep pushing yourself to succeed in the areas you enjoy so much.
We have truly enjoyed the involvement with your friends and will miss them as well. Continue to cherish the friends you have and the memories you share. "Life is partly what we make it, and partly what is made by the friends we choose," Tehyi Hsiehi.
We are so proud of all you've done, and so excited to see what lies ahead for you. Continue to set your goals high and be your own person. We love you and are always here for you.
Love always, Mom, Dad, Dane & Drew

"You've got to sing like you don't need the money, love like you'll never get hurt. You've got to dance like no one's watching. It's got to come from the heart if you want it to work," Susanna Clark





Danielle,
As you make your way through this world always remember that you are special and have what it takes to 'git r'dun'. You have already tackled some of the toughest challenges that have been put before you and have met those with grace and maturity. Always be your own person. Learn something new everyday. Take joy in all that you do. We are all every proud of all that you have done and all that you will become.

I Hope You Dance
By Lee Ann Womack

I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always kept that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty handed
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you have the choice to sit it our or dance
I hope you dance!
